

ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 2025-2026

JULY 2025-JUNE 2026

Letter from the Executive Director

SCRIPTURE THEME:

“Love God and Neighbor”

Dear Friends in Christ,

When asked which commandment is the greatest, Jesus responds with profound simplicity: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind... and you shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22:36–39). In these words, Christ reminds us that love of God and love of neighbor are inseparable, they are two expressions of the same faithful response.

At Catholic Charities of South Carolina, this Gospel call is at the heart of everything we do. Our service to the poor, the vulnerable, and the marginalized is not merely charitable work; it is an act of love. When we feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, and walk alongside those in crisis, we are living out our love for God by honoring the dignity of His beloved children.

Loving God with our whole being naturally moves us outward toward our neighbor, especially those who are most in need. Christ is present in the faces of those we serve, and each act of compassion becomes a tangible witness to the Gospel. Through service, we encounter God, and through faith, we are strengthened to serve more generously.

As we reflect on this Scripture theme, may we be renewed in our commitment to love without limits, to serve with humility, and to recognize Christ in every person we encounter. Together, rooted in faith and guided by love, we continue the mission of bringing hope, healing, and dignity to all.

GETTING AHEAD

Financial Literacy Program

A workshop based on Getting Ahead in a Just-Gettin-By World and the Bridges Out of Poverty framework.

Getting Ahead is a 12-16 week financial literacy and life-skills course that helps individuals in poverty understand why they are “just getting by” and build a concrete plan to move toward long-term stability.

Participants attend group sessions over several weeks, where they build budgets, identify local resources, and set practical goals around employment, education, housing, and family stability. This program is offered at our Office and Georgetown community partner location and in 2026 classes started at our Charleston Office location!

DISASTER SERVICES

Rebuilding After Disaster

Our disaster services team ensures clients return to safe, sanitary, and secure living conditions after natural disasters.

A sometimes forgotten cycle of natural disasters is the Recovery Phase. Once immediate response and relief efforts are provided, many are left dealing with long term affects on their own. Since Catholic Charities is deeply rooted in South Carolina, we are able to provide short and long term recovery services to clients impacted by natural disasters (mostly hurricanes).

Through contractor and community partnerships, we assist clients in their journey to return to sanitary living conditions. Many have adjusted their life for at least a year before contacting us, living in moldy or unsafe conditions daily.

PRISON MINISTRY

Serving Our Neighbors in Prison

Our Restorative Justice and Reentry Services Program works to restore faith for those who are penitent as they seek a fresh start, while our Sacramental Prison Ministry seeks to bring the sacraments to those currently incarcerated.

Our Restorative Justice program starts "inside the walls," helping individuals likely to face poverty or homelessness upon release. The first barrier we address is obtaining IDs for returning citizens that are needed to access employment, medication, treatment, or housing. Through established partnerships, we ensure every person we serve reenters society with these essential documents.

We're one of the few organizations assisting penitent individuals who have served their sentences, helping them build accountable, stable lives free from the risk of homelessness and equipped for employment and reintegration.

Our Sacramental Prison Ministry provides the sacraments, formation, and evangelization to the roughly 450 Catholics currently incarcerated across the state. Monthly, priests and deacons enter prisons to say Mass, hear confessions, and guide individuals who desire to enter the church through OCIA.

Recidivism

The South Carolina Department of Corrections has held the lowest recidivism rate in the nation since 2021, with its most recent three-year rate at just 19.8%, a distinction Governor Henry McMaster has publicly credited in part to organizations like Catholic Charities. At the time of our most recent recidivism verification, only 3% of those we served returned to prison, significantly less than the state average.

SEAFARERS' MINISTRY

Welcoming Our Neighbors

The mission of Seafarer's ministry is to welcome seafarers into Charleston and help them with their material and spiritual needs.

The port of Charleston is one of the busiest on the east coast. Deacon Paul Rosenblum and his volunteers meet seafarers from all over the world when their ships come to the port. They visit the seafarers on their ships, welcome them to the seafarers center, transport them ashore for shopping and other needs, and provide access to the sacraments. At Christmas time the ministry's Christmas-at-Sea program distributes boxes prepared by parishes and other partners throughout the diocese so that seafarers away from home will have a bit of Christmas joy.

SAN PEDRO MISSION

Guatemala Medical Mission

San Pedro La Laguna, Guatemala

Since 2008 the Diocese of Charleston has sent missionaries to serve in San Pedro La Laguna, Guatemala by providing medical services. Our Medical Mission trips to San Pedro occurs twice a year in the spring and fall. We work with the Sisters of Bethany and the Catholic Diocese of Sololá-Chimaltenango to serve the Guatemalan people. The Medical Mission not only provides much-needed health care for Guatemalans, but participants find their own experiences to be life-changing. Medical services provided at the clinic differ on mission depending on what professionals attend.

This year we created a new promotional video and added a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Bl. Stanley Rother as part of the mission experience. We commissioned a painting of Bl. Stanley Rother to create new mission t-shirts and prayer cards for our missionaries.

SPRING BREAK MISSIONS

Missionary Outreach Mission Trips

The Missionary Outreach Program was launched this year to create opportunities for young adults to serve on mission. This year we sent students from the University of South Carolina and College of Charleston on mission.

For the first time ever, young adults from University of South Carolina joined our Guatemala mission. Our missionaries encountered the love of Christ through the Sacraments and the people of Guatemala, following the example of Bl. Stanley Rother.

This year we sent the College of Charleston on a mission to South America, where they served the children of the Santa Maria Foundation. We taught evangelization skills to college students and young adults as we prepared for mission.

Our first young adult mission will take place in October 2026 in Colon, Mexico. In preparation we engaged young adults through a Theology on Tap presentation. This coming year, we hope to increase the number of college/university and young adult missions engaging young adults across the state in both local and international mission work.

HANDS AND FEET OF JESUS

Young Adult Homeless Ministry

Hands and Feet of Jesus is Missionary Outreach's new initiative to engage young adults in serving our neighbors experiencing homelessness in South Carolina.

Through this ministry, we..

- Serve our homeless neighbors in downtown Charleston. We've partnered with the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist Young adults' group to engage young adults in weekly local ministry.
- The ministry is run completely by young adults, giving both supplies and time to make the ministry possible. Young adults weekly meet to make sandwiches and distribute them in the city, offering a meal and prayers for everyone they encounter.
- We plan to launch homeless ministry in Columbia and Greenville in the coming year.

"I have clearly seen pieces of Christ's nature in both the other people serving and the people we encounter. Our brothers and sisters on the streets have often amazed me with their faith, generosity, and kindness."

We've Updated Our Website

This year we launched a fully redesigned website to better reflect our mission and more effectively serve individuals and families across the state. Recognizing that a website is often the first point of contact for those seeking help, we prioritized creating a more welcoming and accessible experience for all users. The updated site makes it easier to navigate services, locate essential resources, request assistance, and connect directly with our programs, reducing barriers for those in urgent need. Beyond improving access to services, it also creates clearer pathways for community involvement, whether through volunteering, donating, or partnering in our mission.

We've Relaunched Our Newsletter

We've relaunched a regular newsletter through Flocknote to strengthen communication with our community and more consistently share the impact of our work. As our programs continue to grow, we recognized the need for a clear and reliable way to keep supporters informed and connected. The newsletter provides monthly updates on how we are loving God and Neighbor in our ministries. This newsletter serves as an invitation to walk alongside us in our mission and build a stronger community rooted in serving those most in need.

We've Updated Our Branding

In 2025, Catholic Charities of South Carolina incorporated Matthew 22:36–39 into its logo to more visibly anchor our identity in the Gospel. Along with this change we have included the Eucharist in our new volunteer T-Shirts and Prayer Card in order to focus our service on the Source and summit of our Faith.
